

pain sets in

have you ever felt
this special feeling
in the moment
before pain sets in

and you know
there is no escape
no salvation
when pain sets in

and you think
you can bear it
you believe, you'll be strong until pain sets in

you will cry
and beg for mercy
and it will hurt like hell
when pain sets in

your suffering is futile it will go on and on
your mind will get free
so, cut off reality
